

Assistant in Nursing

- Located in beautiful rural NSW – Bourke
- Multiple casual positions available with the potential to go permanent
- Working across day, evening, night and weekend shifts

About the role

Our Aged Care Home at Bourke is currently seeking experienced and passionate Assistants in Nursing to join our team! With multiple casual positions available across day, evening and night shifts, there is the potential for a position to go permanent for the right candidate.

Reporting to the Registered Nurse on duty, the Assistant in Nursing position is responsible for effectively providing personal care services that meet the needs of clients and promote positive client outcomes.

About Whiddon

Whiddon is an award-winning, not for profit organisation that has been caring for older Australians in NSW for 70 years. As an organisation that operates in regional, rural and remote NSW and QLD, we are often at the heart of our local communities both as an employer and provider of aged care services.

Our benefits

We offer a fantastic range of employee benefits and training and development opportunities.

We want your journey at Whiddon to be one where you are encouraged to continue to learn and grow as an individual. That's why at Whiddon you'll be supported on your learning journey through a range of development opportunities.
