

Male Case Worker

We are seeking a committed and enthusiastic Male Case worker with a passion for intensive family-focused case management (IFFCM) delivery with male clients and families experiencing domestic violence.

All applicants will need to address the following criteria and cover letter.

Essential Criteria:

- Relevant tertiary qualifications and experience in social work, health, case management, community services, welfare, mental health or a related discipline.
- Experience and/or ability to undertake case management and the coordination of clients needs.
- Skills and competence at completing risk assessments and working with best practise models of care.
- Ability to have tough conversations, address unsafe and/or unhealthy behaviours and provide ongoing support
- Capacity to work within multidisciplinary team and to communicate with a range of internal and external service providers
- Demonstrated high level organisation and time management skills.
- Understanding of clinical governance and how to apply it in the workplace.
- Ability to use IT equipment and software to maintain electronic clinical records.
- Experience working with Aboriginal people and communities.
- Current Drivers licence
- Current working with childrens check (WWCC)

*Please note a Police Check is also required for this role.

Government funded roles will be contracted up to 30 June 2022. On offer is a base salary negotiable on experience and qualifications. In addition, you will be able to access a generous salary packing provisions of up to $15,900 per annum.

To apply for this position you will need to obtain the Information Pack please contact Jackie Davis on 0438 510 185 or bff@birrang.com.au or call into the Birrang office at 12 Darling Street Bourke.

We strongly encourage people who are Aboriginal, Torres Strait Islander, to apply for this position.

Applications can be submitted via email to: Debbie.Maguire@birrang.com.au

Closing date is by close of business 30th July 2021