Contract until July 2021

At CommBank we never lose sight of the role we play in other people's financial wellbeing. Our goal is to help people and businesses move forward, to progress, to make the right financial decisions and achieve their dreams and aspirations.

What will you do?

Our Relieving Officers meet all of our customers' financial needs. They identify and understand the broader investment and lending needs and refer more complex banking enquiries to specialist team members.

You will contribute to a team culture that acts with integrity and accountability, placing the customer at the centre of every interaction

What will help you succeed?

You will be highly motivated, with the ability to work as part of a team and individually in a busy and structured environment.

Your dedication to the customer experience will be evident through your ability to achieve targets in providing financial solutions to each of our customer needs.

Previous banking or finance experience will be helpful but absolutely not essential.

Benefits

There are many benefits to working for CommBank including state of the art technology, discounts on a range of financial products, a corporate wardrobe, nationally accredited training and a commitment to offering employees the opportunity to further their careers within the bank.
