

Housing Support Worker COBAR

Established in 1996, covering 52% of western NSW, CatholicCare Wilcannia-Forbes Limited is the official social service of the Catholic Church of the Diocese of Wilcannia-Forbes. We provide programs and services to enhance social, economic and emotional wellbeing and to strengthen networks of support in our rural and remote communities.

We have an amazing opportunity available! If you are a caring and enthusiastic individual, we need you!

You will work as a Housing Support Worker in our Specialist Homelessness Service providing case management support to people who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless in Cobar and the surrounding district. This position is full time and presents a wonderful opportunity to contribute to the well-being of others and assist your community.

Initially, a maximum term contract will be offered until 18 June 2021. If further funding is made available, an additional contract may be offered to the incumbent. An attractive remuneration package is on offer commensurate with your qualifications and experience.
