

Male Case Workers

Birrang has successfully secured funding under the Third Action Plan of the National Plan to Reduce Violence against Women and their Children, we are seeking a Male Case workers with a passion for intensive family-focused case management (IFFCM) delivery.

Ideally the successful applicants will need to address the following criteria;

- Relevant tertiary qualifications and experience in social work, health, case management, community services, welfare, mental health or a related discipline.
- Experience and/or ability to undertake case management and the coordination of clients needs.
- Skills and competence at completing risk assessments and working with best practise models of care.
- Capacity to work within multidisciplinary team and to communicate with a range of internal and external service providers
- Demonstrated high level organisation and time management skills.
- Understanding of clinical governance and how to apply it in the workplace.
- Ability to use IT equipment and software to maintain electronic clinical records.
- Experience working with Aboriginal people and communities.
- Current Drivers licence

Salary will be based on experience and skills and range from $1153.00 to $1250.00 per week. In addition, you will be able to access generous salary packing provisions of up to $15,900 per annum.

For more information or an information pack please ring Deb Maguire on 0263619511 or email debbie.maguire@birrang.com.au

Applications close at 5pm on Friday, 10th January 2019 submitted via email to:

Debbie.Maguire@birrang.com.au

Birrang Enterprise Development Co Ltd considers being a man is a genuine occupational qualification for this position under s 31 of the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977 (NSW) and under s 30 of Sexual Discrimination Act 1984.

